

This Event Supports Local Efforts for...

Habitat for Humanity works in partnership with God and people everywhere, from all walks of life, to develop communities with people in need by building and renovating houses in which every person can experience God's love and can live and grow into all that God intends.

BSR Angel Flight is affiliated with a non-profit charitable organization of pilots and volunteers, focused on providing free air transportation for compassionate and medically related needs. This service is available to individuals and health care organizations.

"Doing The Most Good." Their mission - to feed, to clothe, to comfort, to care. To rebuild broken homes and broken lives. Leading the addicted to recovery. Fighting hunger and poverty. Living and sharing the Christian Gospel by meeting tangible needs.

About Bradley Sunrise Rotary

The Bradley Sunrise Rotary Club was chartered in 1996, 72 years after the formation of the Cleveland "Noon Day" Rotary Club. Today, the club averages approximately 70 members and meets at 7:00 a.m. each Thursday morning at the Cleveland Elks Lodge. BSR supports several local service projects including Habitat for Humanity, BSR Angel Flight and Salvation Army.

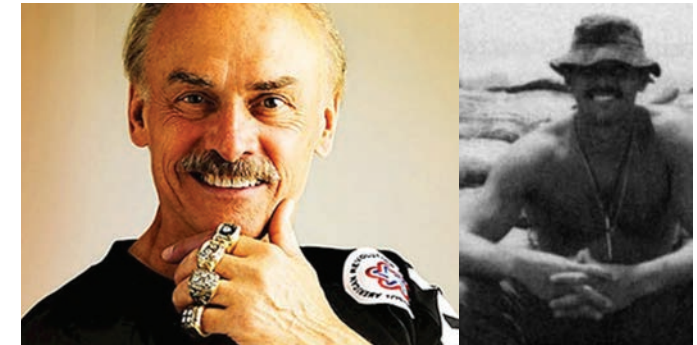

Members meet every Thursday morning at seven o'clock. The mornings are filled with laughter and a song or two since Sunrise Rotarians are self-professed, easy-going business professionals who never take themselves too seriously.

They do, however, take Rotary's motto, Service Above Self, very much to heart. To date, the club has assisted with the funding and construction of 10 Habitat homes, and has financially supported more than 50 Angel Flight missions for financially challenged medical patients.

If you're interested in learning more about membership in the Bradley Sunrise Rotary Club, contact a club member or drop in at an upcoming meeting.

Rocky Bleier

Rocky Bleier's life story – a gripping tale of courage on both the football fields of America and the battle fields of Vietnam – has held audiences in rapt attention for years. Yet, the motivational message behind it, detailing how ordinary people can become extraordinary achievers, defines success in the new American century.

With the same optimism, sense of humor and steadfast determination that were his trademarks as a Pittsburgh Steelers running back, Rocky Bleier takes audiences from his early years through his professional career and talks about the lessons he learned along the way...lessons that we all can benefit from.

Not falling within the ideal of what a running back should look like, Bleier had to run harder and play smarter to be able to stand out. Despite his drive and ability to make the big play, the Pittsburgh Steelers only considered him a late round pick. But before the season ended that first year, he was drafted again...this time by the United States Army. At the height of the Vietnam War, Bleier was thrust into combat early and was seriously wounded when his platoon ran into an ambush. Receiving wounds from both rifle fire and grenade fragments in his legs, he was barely able to walk and his professional football career seemed to have ended before it began.

For more than two years, he drove himself. Little by little, he overcame obstacles and fought his way back. He not only made the Pittsburgh Steelers, but also eventually became a starting running back on a team that won four Super Bowls and became the greatest football team of the 20th century.

The hard lessons Rocky Bleier learned early in his life that helped him overcome adversity and reach his goals, have paid off after football. Some of those lessons are seen between the lines in the popular book on his life, "Fighting Back," and an ABC-TV movie of the week by the same name.
